

Working together in unison, The Shelter and Canvas play host to a rolling programme of worship and reflection in a variety of traditions and forms. With the Nine Beats global collective in residence all weekend, the programme is deliberately wide and generous – designed to stretch the spirit and imagination. The other side of the lake is your destination to take time out and come before God. Besides this new 'devotion zone', there are Sacred Music performances in The Colonnades, too.

CANVAS & SHELTER

FRIDAY

5.15 PM ✦ STEPPING INTO THE COMMON GOOD

Fr Rob Parker-McGee
An opening service of meditative space and evocative blessing as we step deeper into God's communal goodness – as Fr Rob Parker-McGee will bless the festival. Rob is vicar of the parishes in which the festival sits.

6.15 PM ✦ FINDING OUR WAY: A REFLECTIVE TALK ON THE PRACTICE OF SPIRITUAL DIRECTION

Exploring what spiritual direction is and how it might be of help in life's complicated journey. Time out at Greenbelt often brings to light many of the things we have been reflecting on for some time. Greenbelt is offering sessions with trained spiritual directors as a kind of common ground between people – a space within which some of these issues can be explored. Led by Diane Craven and members of the Spiritual Direction team.

7.15 PM ✦ THE WAY OF TRUST

The 9 Beats Collective
Join the international 9 Beats Collective for live music, conversation, and practice inspired by The Beatitudes. Ft. Heatherlym, Rev. Vince Anderson, Rozella White, Eric Leroy Wilson, Mikael Rahbaek Andreassen, and Mark Scandrette.

11.15 PM ✦ EUCHARIST: FLOWING THROUGH GOD'S VEINS

SUB
SUB have found that alternative subcultures often have interpretations and experiences of faith that bring fresh perspectives to age-old topics. Here, they explore a gothic theology of blood. Manchester-based SUB explore spirituality and faith in the Christian tradition, through the eyes of alternative subcultures. Meet at the pontoon bridge at 11pm.

SATURDAY

9.30 AM ✦ THE WAY OF LAMENT

The 9 Beats Collective
See Friday 7.15pm for details.

10.45 AM ✦ CHRIST OF THE COMMA

Urban Expression
Through story, music, poetry and prayer, we worshipfully explore the challenging life of Jesus – who organised for peace and made people want to kill him – inadequately summed up in the Creeds by a comma. Day 1: Riding into Jerusalem on a donkey as an act of non-violent direct action – challenging the system and calling people to different values. Peter Atkins is a Baptist minister; David Benjamin Blower is a writer, musician and community theologian; Alexandra Elish is a community Baptist minister with an Urban Expression team; Juliet Kilpin is an advocate for Urban Expression.

11.45 AM ✦ MEETING CHRIST ON THE WAY: THE TRIAL

Alastair McKay and Ayla Lepine
A first taster of a new online interactive discipleship resource from St Martin-in-the-Fields and the National Gallery, 'Art and the Bible Story: Inspired to Follow', looking at the trial of Jesus through Gerrit van Honthorst's painting 'Christ before the High Priest' (c.1617) and Matthew 26. Alastair McKay is a priest at London's St Martin-in-the-Fields, and an adult educator, facilitator and coach working with clergy and church groups. Ayla Lepine is a Fellow in Art History at the University of Essex and an ordinand at Westcott House. She has taught at the Courtauld, Yale, and King's College London, and has published widely on the intersections across theology and the arts. In assoc. with St Martin-in-the-Fields

1.00 PM ✦ ENCOUNTERING GOD IN THE STORM

Dr Winston Halapua, Archbishop of Polynesia
Share in the diversity of worship from Aotearoa/New Zealand and Polynesia, liturgy and music which has been shaped by the sea and a people utterly dependent on it. Experience the sacred 'Moana' (ocean) in song, word and prayer. USPG supports churches around the world in their mission to bring fullness of life to the communities they serve. In association with USPG

2.00 PM ✦ QUAKER MEETING FOR WORSHIP

In our worship, Quakers find an inner stillness, amid the festival's dance and colour. We find the light within, the source of our strength and our spiritual guide. Join us, finding a way into silence and communing with the Divine. Quakers from Northamptonshire welcome you to worship with them and will introduce you to the unique Quaker meeting.

3.00 PM ✦ A SPIRITUALITY FOR THE COMMON GOOD

Kate Monkhouse
What kind of spiritual practice helps us work for The Common Good? How does our prayer guide us to discern how to use our gifts and sustain our engagement? Where might we find joy in the midst of injustice and share delight alongside others? Kate Monkhouse is a facilitator and fundraiser who is passionate about participation, spirituality and social justice.

4.00 PM ✦ COMMON CAUSE

The Iona Community
Creative, participative worship with the Iona Community. The Iona Community is a dispersed Christian ecumenical community working for peace and social justice, rebuilding of community and the renewal of worship.

5.00 PM ✦ THE WAY OF JUSTICE

The 9 Beats Collective
See Friday 7.15pm for details.

6.00 PM ✦ MA'ARIVA ARAVIM

Rachel Rose Reid
As the afternoon slips away, the Jewish evening prayers contemplate the changing light and the presence of infinite love, invoking protection. Join us for an end-of-afternoon circle of accessible, prayerful chant, song and silence, leading us towards relaxation and the coming of evening. Rachel Rose Reid is a storyteller and the first European woman to be ordained by the Kohenet Hebrew Priestess Institute.

7.00 PM ✦ OUTERSPACE EUCHARIST

Elizabeth Edman, Outerspace
Outerspace invites you to an extraordinarily ordinary Eucharist, where LGBTIQ people can come and celebrate together, confident in our identities, with no need to hide from God, from ourselves or from one another. Everyone is welcome.

8.00 PM ✦ TAIZE

With Andrew and Felicity Maries & co
The beauty of human voices united in song gives a glimpse of heaven's joy on earth: join us for Taize-style worship with simple chants helping us to come before God – and to listen – through music, prayer and silence.

11.15 PM ✦ SATSANG

Nabeel Masih
The Indian tradition of Satsang (truth gathering) ushers worshippers into a profound devotional experience. Centred around bhajans (songs of devotion) the Greenbelt 2017 Satsang will offer space for acts of Christ-centred worship drawing on the riches of a multi-coloured world. Nabeel Masih, a university lecturer, leads worship with his global fusion band, which blends sounds of East and West. Meet at the pontoon bridge at 11pm.
